Soča Pod ključem

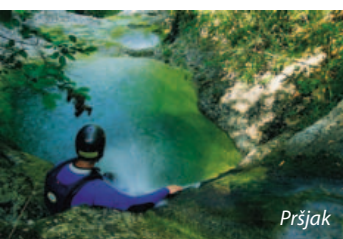

The Soča Valley, an area at the primal cusp of the high mountains and the littoral, surprises with its rich and green tourist offer.

Here, not only nature and the sustainable tourism offer is green, but also the valley's greatest peculiarity, a beauty that flows with vivid emerald shades, Soča, one of the most beautiful European rivers. Simon Gregorčič, one of Slovenia's most prominent poets, called it the »Clear daughter of the mountains«. The diverse landscape offers almost unlimited opportunities for cultural and historical experiences, for sports activities and relaxation. Friendly locals know how to make their guests feel at home with their excellent local cuisine.

The Soča Valley is a young and quickly growing tourist destination, the range of offers and the variety of accommodation options is rising from day to day. Lovers of nature can choose between the lightness of campsites or the hospitality of tourist farms and the excellence of their home-made food. In the summer time, hikers are given shelter by mountain huts. Young people can meet visitors from all over the world in youth hostels. Holiday houses, apartments and private rooms offer the right measure of domesticity, privacy and comfort. The same is true for hotels and boarding houses – they are small and friendly, with an excellent culinary and other offer.

This catalogue is intended to help you in finding basic information about the most important local sights, sports programs, catering facilities, museums and many different accommodation options in the area of Kobarid and Tolmin.

Selected sites

Slap Kozjak

Sv. Anton

Nadiža

- ✿ TRIGLAV NATIONAL PARK • The Alpine part of the valley area is protected by the Triglav National Park. Mountain trails lead to summits and to numerous natural wonders. The peculiarity of the area are vivid mountain pastures where the famous Tolminc cheese is produced according to a centuries old recipe.

- ✿ KOZJAK WATERFALL • The picturesque Kozjak waterfall is caught in a stony amphitheatre not far away from Kobarid. It can be reached by an easy walking path by the riverbed of the emerald Soča River.

NADIŽA RIVER • Clear pools and bathing sites of the Nadiža River invite visitors to refresh themselves in the hot summer days. Locals believe the river has healing powers.

- ✿ ITALIAN OSSUARY • On the viewpoint above Kobarid, there is an Italian ossuary, built in the post-WWI period, in 1938. 7.014 human remains of fallen Italian soldiers were transferred in the ossuary from surrounding military graveyards.

- ✿ TOLMIN GORGES • The Tolmin gorges are the lowest and possibly the most beautiful entry-point to the Triglav National Park. A circular path leads through the gorges of the Tolminka and the Zadlaščica rivers. The most prominent attractions are the wedged rock named Bear's Head and the Devil's Bridge, 60 metres high above the bluish Tolminka River.

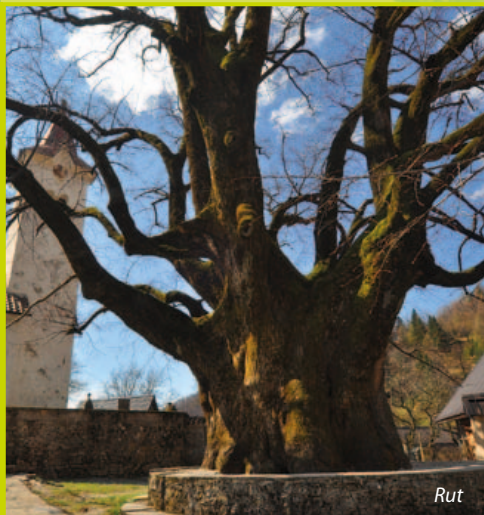

Tolminska korita

Javorca

- ✿ THE MEMORIAL CHURCH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN JAVORCA • The memorial church of the Holy Spirit in Javorca, the most beautiful monument of WWI in the area of the Soča front, was built by Austro-Hungarian soldiers during the war and dedicated to their fellow combatants, fallen on the surrounding hills. The church is one of the three Slovenian monuments placed on the list of European Heritage Sites.

Rut

Ponikve

Kolovrat

- ✿ LIME TREE IN THE RUT VILLAGE • The village Rut above the valley Baška grapa is one of the few truly beautiful mountain villages, sunbathed on the terraces above the valleys of the rivers Soča, Idrijca and Bača. It is distinguished by another particular ornament – one of the mightiest trees in the country, an old lime tree with a circumference of more than 8 metres.

- ✿ MARY'S CHURCH IN PONIKVE • One of the last works of Jože Plečnik, Slovenia's greatest architect. An inventive reconstruction of the Church of St. Mary's Call burned down by German soldiers during the II. world war. It stands on the remote and quiet plateau Šentviška planota.

- ✿ MUSEUMS • The Kobarid Museum tells the story about WWI; the Tolmin Museum presents the entire heritage of the Soča Valley. In its museum, the Mlekarna Planika dairy presents the interesting tradition of cheese-making, while the Arheological museum Most na Soči provides insights into the region's archaeological history. There are many smaller and private museum collections in the valley, and doors of the birth houses of important local residents are open to visitors.

- ✿ PRŠJAK WATERFALL • The valley of the Trebuščica River hides many wild gorges and magnificent waterfalls. The beautiful Pršjak waterfall is one of the easiest to access. The brook is also very popular among canyoning enthusiasts.

✿ THEMATIC TRAILS

- The Kobarid historical trail links the historic and natural sites around Kobarid.
- The Cultural and historical trail of Most na Soči (Čez Most po modrost) narrates the archaeological and cultural history of the Most na Soči.
- The Kosmač didactic trail is a trail in memory of writer Ciril Kosmač.
- The Old border trail runs through the fortresses of the former Rapallo border between Italy and Yugoslavia, along panoramic ridges and summits around the Podbrdo town in the Valley Baška grapa.
- The Walk of peace connects monuments and the remains of WWI, there are outdoor museums on six viewpoint locations.

A paradise for active holidays

Stol

✿ HIKING • Walking through numerous trails in the valley hikers can see waterfalls, gorges, springs, lakes and other sites. There are many circular and thematic trails that familiarise visitors with the heritage of the area. The Soča Valley is an excellent starting-point for more demanding mountain trails; numerous mountain huts offer refreshments, shelter or overnight accommodation. Important long distance trails lead through the valley and on the summits above it: the Slovene Mountain Path, Via Alpina, the E7 European long distance path and the Alpe Adria Trail.

✿ PARAGLIDING AND HANG GLIDING • Due to favourable thermal conditions and exceptionally majestic viewpoints, the Soča Valley is considered as one of the most popular paragliding and hang gliding destinations in the world. The most famous takeoffs in the Valley are on the Kobala Mountain and on Stol Mountain which are also the platforms for numerous national and international competitions. Experienced tandem pilots can offer at least a fragment of the flying experience to any visitor who is brave enough.

Pršjak

Lužnica

Soča – Trenta

✿ WATER SPORTS • With its rapids the emerald Soča River attracts each year enthusiasts of water sports from all over the world. They can go rafting, kayaking, and hydro speeding or take on other sporting adventures accompanied by guides from numerous local sports agencies, for solo navigation, however, they will need a permit. The popular canyoning enables visitors to experience picturesque gorges, waterfalls and pools. In the summer time, seductive river pools are a refreshing option for all visitors. The most popular river to bathe in is Nadiža.

Soča - Kobarid

✿ CLIMBING AND CAVING • There are several easy accessible climbing areas through the entire valley. Climbing routes of medium difficulty predominate, the hardest of which is currently rated as 8a. Climbers can look for their own challenges on the high walls in the Julian Alps (some as high as 1000 metres). Many deep caves hide under the Karstic mountain area; however, they are all very demanding and suitable only for experienced cavers.

✿ CYCLING • The diverse landscape offers unlimited opportunities for cycling. Less trafficked roads in the valley are suitable for lighter cycling tours, while ascents and descents on numerous mountain roads, paths and car tracks provide for a more adrenaline experience. Cycling paths are not marked; however, they are described in detail on maps and guides.

Senica

Most na Soči

Idrijca

✿ FISHING • The Soča Valley is a paradise for fly-fishing – which is the only permitted fishing method. The Angling club of Tolmin manages 145 km of fishing waters, and it is possible to fish in eight rivers with only one permit. With the exception of Soča, where navigation is permitted, all other rivers are reserved only for fishing. Among fish species, grayling and the famous Soča trout are the most important (salmo marmoratus).

Hiša Franko is famous for Ana's author's cuisine, heavily related to local ingredients – dairy products, lamb, game, season mushrooms, wild grass, flowers and herbs, trouts. Dishes are playful, colourful and light. In Hiša Franko there is a cheese cellar, where Tolmin cheeses ripe until reaching their four years of age; a wine cellar, where Valter keeps the best wines that the Slovenian wine market can offer; shelves are stocked with home-made marmalades and local honey, and a large garden where herbs and vegetables are grown extends behind the house. During warmer months the glass garden terrace is opened to guests, tables are set and ready also by a lively stream with a view on the mighty Krn Mountain. The house is located only 1 km from the Nadiža River and is a great starting-point for all kinds of hikes and strolls or cycling trips.

Nearby, in their family hotel complex is the home of the doyens of Kobarid cuisine, the Hvala family. Some decades ago their restaurant, Topli val, became famous for its exceptionally fresh sea food; it retains that reputation to this day as a meeting place of the mountains and the sea, the Alps and the Adriatic, with its wonderful meat dishes and deliciously prepared fish. And finally you might come full circle. Or is that just beginning again?

BREGINJSKI KOT is the valley in the westernmost part of Slovenia, between the villages Staro selo and Breginj, by the Italian border. It meanders under the mountains Stol in the north and Mija in the south. From Kobarid, an old town in the picturesque Soča Valley, to Breginj, the largest village at the very end of the mysterious Breginjski kot, there are 13 small villages above the Nadiža River, among them also the westernmost Slovene village called Robidišče. The most important tradition of this area is its natural and ethnological heritage

Local people even claim that the Nadiža has healing powers.

Tolmin with surroundings

Most na Soči – Tolmin

✿ TOLMIN, the administrative centre of the valley, is sunbathed on a pleasant terrace above the confluence of the rivers Soča and Tolminka. During WWI it was the basis for the winning breakthrough of the Soča front. Ruins of old castle above the town are the reminders of its rich history. The Tolmin area is distinguished by a rich offer of activities in nature. In recent years Tolmin is becoming the centre of diverse festival events.

Tolmin and its surroundings offer accommodations for almost 1.700 guests. 400 accommodations are available in camps by the Soča and the Tolminka Rivers, 250 guests can stay in hotels or guesthouses, while the largest capacity – 650 beds – is offered by private undertakings in apartments, private rooms and tourist farms. 350 beds are available in youth hostels in town and mountain huts under the Alpine summits.

The Angling club of Tolmin manages 140 km of fishing waters of the rivers Soča and Idrijca with their affluents and breeds autochthonous salmonidae. The only permitted fishing method is fly-fishing. You can obtain more information on the internet and upon purchasing the permit. The peculiarity of the Soča Valley area is the Soča trout, endemic of the north river basin of the Adriatic Sea and the largest trout in Europe.

The birth house of the Slovenian poet Simon Gregorčič (1844–1906) is a unique ethnological monument. The Museum's ground floor holds an exhibition of culture and lifestyle in the late 19th century for people in that area below the Krn Mountain – and the first floor holds a retrospective exhibition in honour of the artist's life and work, and of the time and space he's lived in.

The Kobarid Museum offers to its visitors the most extensive tale of the Soča front, mountain warfare in the Julian Alps and the 12th Soča battle, the battle of Kobarid (Caporetto, Karfreit). The Museum complements the exhibit with yearly thematic exhibitions. The great model of the Upper Soča Valley, numerous maps and photos, exhibit items and a 20 minutes long documentary film describe in great detail this famous battle. The shocking story of an Italian soldier in the cave model touches the hearts of the visitors and reiterates the museum's message: "Damned war!" Expert guides will take the museum's visitors on the historical path of the town of Kobarid and on the former battlefield. The museum is open all year round!

MUSEUM COLLECTION "FROM THE MOUNTAIN PASTURE TO THE PLANIKA DIARY"

All about grazing, cheese-making and modern milk processing is displayed in the cheese museum "From the mountain pasture to the Planika dairy". The museum's historical and ethnological collection and film present the heritage of mountain grazing, mountain pastures, the development of the cheese trade and cheese processing in the Mlekarna Planika dairy which is based on the Soča Valley area cheese-making tradition. The centrepiece of the collection is represented by the reconstruction of a mountain house with all its relative equipment for processing milk into cheese. In the museum gift shop you can purchase artisanal products and all products by the Mlekarna Planika dairy.

Hiking on an approximately 100 kilometres long Walk of Peace gives visitors an active holiday in nature and the opportunity to discover the history of the Soča front. The Walk of Peace passes by six outdoor museums, military cemeteries and chapels, the stronghold Kluže near Bovec, the gorges of the rivers Koritnica, Soča and Tolminka, idyllic mountains, the Kozjak waterfall, ossuaries in Kobarid and Tolmin, the memorial church of the Holy Spirit in Javorca,... At the information centre of the Walk of Peace you can hire a guide for a tour on the Walk of Peace trail or a tour of the WWI outdoor museums.

The rich cultural heritage of the Upper Soča Region is on display in the Tolmin Museum, which is in the Coronini Mansion in the centre of Tolmin. The exhibition presents exceptional artefacts that had been buried for thousands of years - particularly those found in Most na Soči, which testify to the Iron Age Sveta Lucija culture. This region is known for its architecture and ethnological traditions, its traditional farming practice on mountain pastures and its cheese-making tradition. A focus is placed on the large and bloody Tolmin Peasants' Revolt of 1713, which was the largest rebel uprising of farmers in the Primorska Region and the last major peasant revolt in Slovenia.
